NATIONAL BLACK SISTERS' CONFERENCE

In covenant with God, we are dedicated to the support of Black religious-sisters; developing resources and working diligently to create spaces that highlight, celebrate, educate, and share the impact and influence Black religious-sisters have made.

Our Commitment

1. Support one another as we walk the journey of faith, service, and create conversations around religious and cultural justice.
2. Creating avenues and outlets that strengthen our knowledge, skillset, spiritual wellness, and foster a positive self-image for current and future sisters.
3. Reclaim our voice and authority as confidants in the Catholic faith, secure our roles as leaders in the political arena; and serve as the guiding light into the future of Black sisters.

Our Programs

→ Ubuntu Resources

An online resource developed to foster spiritual connections between established and younger sisters; and provide an opportunity for continual technical and vocational education for NBSC members.

Our Projects

→ The US Project

NBSC is dedicated to capturing the history of Black sisters-religious and existing elder members. The countless stories of Black religious sisters who founded and served as part of The National Black Sisters' Conference that were influential in the increase of Black Catholics and the political pivot of the 1970's. The "US" Project is committed to archiving the heart and soul of NBSC and Black religious sisters.

We draw strength and courage from God, support one another in the faith; and hold our elders in high esteem.
